ONE OF THOSE

On a long, quiet train journey to Cornwall, James and Laura meet for the first time. Meanwhile, in the next carriage, Philip and Davina are looking forward to their first weekend away together, only to be confronted by Philip's wife.

One of Those, a fast paced comedy by Tom Ward-Thomas, challenges the classical stereotypes of age and background and explores the exciting beginnings of one relationship against the desperate cartwheels of another, with scenes switching between the past and present as the audience views the stages of their relationship from different perspectives.

One of Those will premiere in a three-week season at Tristan Bates Theatre from Tuesday January 26 - Saturday February 13, 2016.

Press are invited to review on Wednesday January 27 at 7.30pm.

Cast: Martin Ball (his West End musicals include The Phantom of the Opera, Les Miserables, Wicked, Mamma Mia and Top Hat); Louise Bangay (Folk with Tom Morris at the NT Studio, Trevor Nunn's productions of Cyrano de Bergerac at Chichester and Rock 'n' Roll at The Royal Court and Duke of York's); Tom Ward-Thomas (Tartuffe at the Canal Café Theatre, David Cameron in The New Prime Minister at the Cochrane Theatre). Amy Newton (Cake and Congo at Theatre503), Emma Kelly (Queen Margaret in Henry VI: Play of Thrones at the Union Theatre, Em in Public Displays of Affection at Soho Theatre and she covered and played Sophie in Mamma Mia! in the West End).

Amy Ewbank (Director) is Artistic Director of Doll's Eye Theatre. Her credicts include: The Forbidden at The Canvas and Philip Ridley New Writing Premieres at the Old Red Lion.

Tom Ward-Thomas (Writer). One of Those is Tom's debut as a playwright and he currently has two feature films in development, The Convict and Artist's Retreat, and a new TV sitcom.
